Collect

Almighty God,
thou hast made us for thyself and our hearts are restless till they find their rest in thee:
pour thy love into our hearts
and draw us to thyself, and so bring us at the last
to thy heavenly city
where we shall see thee face to face;
through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Please take a copy of this pew sheet to read at home, or for anyone who might like to receive one

If you know anyone who would like to receive home communion, please let one of the churchwardens know

The First Lesson, taken out of the Old Testament

Amos 8,4-7

Hear this, you that trample on the needy, and bring to ruin the poor of the land, saying, "When will the new moon be over so that we may sell grain;
and the sabbath,
so that we may offer wheat for sale?
We will make the ephah small and the shekel great,
and practice deceit with false balances, buying the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, and selling the sweepings of the wheat."
The Lord has sworn by the pride of Jacob:
Surely I will never forget any of their deeds.

The Second Lesson, taken out of the New Testament

Luke 16,1-13

Then Jesus said to the disciples, "There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Give me an accounting of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.' Then the manager said to himself, 'What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.' So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?' He answered, 'A hundred jugs of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.' Then he asked another, 'And how much do you owe?' He replied, 'A hundred containers of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill and make it eighty.' And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

"Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. 11 If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth."

Psalm 113

- 1 Praise the Lord!
Praise, O servants of the Lord;
praise the name of the Lord.
- 2 Blessed be the name of the Lord from this time on and forevermore.
- 3 From the rising of the sun to its setting the name of the Lord is to be praised.
- 4 The Lord is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens.
- 5 Who is like the Lord our God,
who is seated on high,
- 6 who looks far down on the heavens and the earth?
- 7 He raises the poor from the dust,
and lifts the needy from the ash heap,
- 8 to make them sit with princes, with the princes of his people.
- 9 He gives the barren woman a home, making her the joyous mother of children.
Praise the Lord!
