Pew Notices (The pew sheets are published on our website)

The Big Breakfast at St Peter's Finsthwaite – Sunday 23rd October - held in their village hall next to the church. It starts quite early, but there will be something left for those who can make it over the Finsthwaite after our morning service. Proceeds to their church funds – I think they ask for £5 or thereabouts.

Tuesday 8th November - Visit to St Peter's by congregations from churches on the Peninsula, but primarily organised by the congregation at St Paul's, Grange. Visit scheduled for 2.00, starting with a look round the church and then a tea!

Soup and Stalls Saturday 12th November.

Remembrance Sunday 13th November. As usual the cash collection from this service will be donated to the British Legion.

Church cleaning – Sunday 13th November at 12.00 – please sign up.

Opening and closing the church – once again volunteers please.

Collect

Grant, we beseech thee,
merciful Lord,
to thy faithful people
pardon and peace,
that they may be cleansed
from all their sins
and serve thee with a quiet mind;
through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord,
who liveth and reigneth with thee,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

*Please take a copy of this pew sheet to read at home,
or for anyone who might like to receive one*

If you know anyone who would like to receive home communion, please let one of the churchwardens know

Genesis 32:22-31

The same night he got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak.

When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, 'Let me go, for the day is breaking.' But Jacob said, 'I will not let you go, unless you bless me.' So he said to him, 'What is your name?' And he said, 'Jacob.'

Then the man said, 'You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed.' Then Jacob asked him, 'Please tell me your name.' But he said, 'Why is it that you ask my name?'

And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, 'For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved.' The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his hip.

Luke 18, 1-8

Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. He said, 'In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, "Grant me justice against my opponent."

For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, "Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming."

And the Lord said, 'Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?'

Psalm 121

1 I lift up my eyes to the hills—
from where will my help come?

2 My help comes from the Lord,
who made heaven and earth.

3 He will not let your foot be moved;
he who keeps you will not slumber.

4 He who keeps Israel
will neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The Lord is your keeper;
the Lord is your shade at your right hand.

6 The sun shall not strike you by day,
nor the moon by night.

7 The Lord will keep you from all evil;
he will keep your life.

8 The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in from this time on and for evermore.
