

The Last Post: The beginning of the two-minute silence.

Reveille: The completion of the time of silence.

The Kohima Epitaph is said together:

When you go home tell them of us and say,
for your tomorrow we gave our today.

Let us commit ourselves to responsible living and faithful service.

Will you strive for all that makes for peace?

We will.

Will you seek to heal the wounds of war?

We will.

Will you work for a just future for all humanity?

We will.

Final Offertory Hymn: 413 – Eternal Father strong to save

The Blessing

Go forth into the world in peace; be of good courage; hold fast to that which is good; render to no person evil for evil; strengthen the faint-hearted; support the weak; help the afflicted; honour all people, love and serve the Lord, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit, and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit be with you remain with you always. Amen.

Our Next Service

Sunday 19th November – 2nd Sunday before Advent

Book of Common Prayer – Morning Prayer

After the service, please join us at the back of the church for tea or coffee. Please take a copy of this pew sheet to read at home, or for anyone who might like to receive one. If you know anyone who would like to receive home communion, please let one of the churchwardens know.

Remembrance Sunday

Welcome to our service

Hymn: 537 - O God our help in ages past

The Bidding Prayer

We have come together to remember before God those from our community who died in the First World War. We offer our gratitude for their devotion to duty and sacrifice. As we recall all that they gave in the service for others, so we remember too our armed forces today who display the same devotion to duty and sacrifice in the conflicts of this present time.

Psalm 46

God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.
Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change,
though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea;
though its waters roar and foam,
though the mountains tremble with its tumult.
There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
the holy habitation of the Most High.
God is in the midst of the city; it shall not be moved;
God will help it when the morning dawns.
The nations are in an uproar, the kingdoms totter;
he utters his voice, the earth melts.
The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.
Come, behold the works of the Lord;
see what desolations he has brought on the earth.

He makes wars cease to the end of the earth;
he breaks the bow, and shatters the spear;
he burns the shields with fire.
'Be still, and know that I am God!
I am exalted among the nations,
I am exalted in the earth.'
The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.

The First Reading

Hymn: 354 - The National Anthem

The Second Reading

The Remembering: Today, as part of our remembrance throughout the twelve months leading up to the Anniversary in November 2018, we remember especially Private Timothy Benson.

The Prayers

Almighty God, King of kings and Lord of lords, we give you thanks for the devotion to duty of name in the service of the Crown in the cause of freedom and justice. May this example always be acknowledged and his sacrifice remembered by us; we ask this in the name of your son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, stretch forth thy mighty arm to strengthen and protect the Armed Forces; grant that meeting danger with courage and on all occasions with discipline and loyalty; they may truly serve the cause of justice and peace; to the honour of your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, the fountain of all goodness, bless our Sovereign Lady, Queen Elizabeth, and all who are in authority under her; that they may order all things in wisdom and equality, righteousness and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Heavenly Father, look in your compassion on all those in need, especially those for whom our prayers are desired. Grant them the comfort of your presence; let peace rule their hearts; and fulfil in them your perfect will, for the glory of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, from whom all thoughts of truth and peace process: kindle, we pray, in the hearts of all people the true love and peace and guide with thy pure and peaceful wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth: that in tranquillity thy kingdom may go forward, till earth be filled with the knowledge of your love. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Hymn: 355 – I vow to thee my country

The wreath laying and the reading of the names of the fallen.

The Binyon Poem [Read by the wreath layer]

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;
age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We will remember them.

[All] We will remember them.
