Stewardship: In the weeks leading up to Easter your vicar, churchwardens and the PCC, will be encouraging all in the parish, who wish to support St Peter's, to consider helping us remain financially viable. It will be a time for us all to review our giving. It goes without saying that we are immensely grateful to those who already give so generously. It is worth remembering that at the moment the vast bulk of our income is donated by about 25 individuals. We aim to spread the net wider and encourage more to give a little. If you have any ideas how we might achieve this – please let us know!

Meditation: Tuesdays as usual at 5.30pm.

Beating the Bounds: The walk around the parish boundary will take place on Saturday 23rd March. Meet at 9.30 am at Broughton Bank. Churches Together Walks: see cartmelpeninsulachurches.org.uk for details.

'Discover More During Lent': A series of Lent talks – see the posters and leaflets for details, or have a word with Judith. Lent Lunches: see website.

Church Cleaning: Saturday 6th April 10.00 am to 2.00 pm.

Mothering Sunday: 31st March. Let's hope the daffodils don't get frosted!

Pie and pea supper with Bishop James: Monday 25th March at St Paul's Grange. More information will be forthcoming.

New website: There is a new website for the Cartmel Peninsula Churches, imaginatively called cartmelpeninsulachurches.org.uk. Go on - have a look!

Our Next Service

Sunday 17th March – Book of Common Prayer – Matins

After the service, please join us at the back of the church for tea or coffee. Please take a copy of this pew sheet to read at home, or for anyone who might like to receive one. If you know anyone who would like to receive home communion, please let one of the churchwardens know.

*The Temptation of Christ by the Devil (1860)
by Félix Joseph Barrias (1822 - 1907)*

'Do not put the Lord your God
to the test.'

Deuteronomy 26: 1 - 11

When you have come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it, you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the LORD your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, 'Today I declare to the LORD your God that I have come into the land that the LORD swore to our ancestors to give us.' When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the LORD your God, you shall make this response before the LORD your God: 'A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labor on us, we cried to the LORD, the God of our ancestors; the LORD heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. The LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O LORD, have given me.' You shall set it down before the LORD your God and bow down before the LORD your God. Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the LORD your God has given to you and to your house.

Romans 10: 8 - 13

'The word is near you,
on your lips and in your heart'
(that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, 'No one who believes in him will be put to shame.' For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, 'Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

Luke 4: 1 - 13

After his baptism, Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread.' Jesus answered him, 'It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone.'"

Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, 'To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.' Jesus answered him, 'It is written,

'Worship the Lord your God,
and serve only him.'"

Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, 'If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written,

'He will command his angels concerning you,
to protect you,'

and

'On their hands they will bear you up,
so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'"

Jesus answered him, 'It is said, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'"

When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

Collect

Almighty God,
whose Son Jesus Christ did fast
forty days in the wilderness,
and was tempted as we are,
yet without sin:
give us grace to discipline ourselves
in obedience to thy Spirit;
and, as thou knowest our weakness,
so may we know thy power to save;
through Jesus Christ, thy Son our Lord,
who liveth and reigneth with thee,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Post Communion

Lord God,
you have renewed us
with the living bread from heaven;
by it you nourish our faith,
increase our hope,
and strengthen our love:
teach us always
to hunger for him
who is the true and living bread,
and enable us to live
by every word that proceeds
from out of your mouth;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen
